

Tuesday, November 28, 2006

Hearings planned on crack and powder cocaine sentencing disparities.

Now that the Democrats have taken control of both chambers of Congress, Rep. Robert Scott, D-Va. -- who chairs the House subcommittee on crime, terrorism and homeland security -- plans hearings on the crack and powder cocaine sentencing disparities that he has previously criticized. More on the issue is here. Jon Katz.

Posted by Jon Katz in Drugs at 00:00