

Monday, October 30, 2006

If waterboarding is not torture, what is?

After I recently blogged against waterboarding, vice president Cheney asserted recently that nothing was wrong with dunking a terrorism suspect in water if it saved lives. Your vote counts. Jon Katz.

Posted by Jon Katz in Constitutional Law at 00:30